FLINN AND PENROSE "MAKE UP" ON TRAIN

Estranged Pennsylvania Politicians Speak and Sit in Opposite Ends of Car.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 28.—A meeting between Senator Boies Penrose and William Flinn, former Bull Moose chief, the first since the 1912 revolt, was an incident of the visit here of Charles E. Hughes yesterday.

The two, as members of the reception committee of which Senator Oliver was chairman, which boarded the Hughes special this morning at Alliance, Ohio, faced each other for the first time in four years. Flinn entered parlor car to find Penrose shaking hands with other committee members.

For a fraction of a second as their eyes met Penrose and Flinn neither moved nor spoke, and then Flinn, breaking the ice, blurted out:

"Hello, Senator!"

"Hello, Senator!" Penrose returned solidly.

Then both smiled and found their voices further. Flinn's eyes twinkled as he observed:

"You're stouter than when I knew you in the State senate twenty-eight years ago—too much mingling with the plutocrats and not enough with the plain people."

"Oh," Penrose replied, "when you first knew me was before I fell in with some of you fellows down at Harrisburg."

Flinn was invited to take a seat opposite Penrose, but instead he moved forward to the other end of the car.

Thus they rode to Pittsburgh from Alliance, Pa., for most of the time in conversation with Mayor Joseph Armstrong and Flinn with President J. H. Kerr, of Pittsburgh's city council.

The two did not meet again in the course of the day.

How You Can Remove Every Trace of Hair

(Toilet Talks.)
A stiff paste made with some powdered talc and water and spread on a hairy surface about 2 minutes, will, when removed, take every trace of hair with it. The skin should then be washed to free it from the remaining talc. No harm can result from this treatment, but be sure it is talc you get and you will not be disappointed.—Adv.
